COMPLAINT FOR INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

Purdue Pharma L.P. (“Purdue Pharma”) and certain other of the debtors (“Debtors”)² in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases that are defendants in over 2,625 pending civil actions in state and federal courts around the country (“Pending Actions”) and plaintiffs in this adversary proceeding allege for their Complaint, upon knowledge of their own acts and upon information and belief as to other matters, as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION AND THE NEED FOR RELIEF

1. This is an adversary proceeding brought pursuant to Rules 7001(7) and 7065 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”) and section 105 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) to: (i) enjoin the governmental defendants in this adversary proceeding (“Governmental Defendants”) from the commencement or continuation of their active judicial, administrative, or other actions or proceedings against the Debtors that were or could have been commenced before the commencement of this case (the “Governmental Actions”),³ which are identified in Exhibit A to this Complaint, as well as the commencement or continuation of any other actions against the Debtors alleging substantially similar facts or causes of action as those alleged in the Governmental Actions, if not otherwise subject to the automatic stay imposed by section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, for a period of 270 days from the issuance of the injunction; and (ii) enjoin the Governmental Defendants and the private defendants (“Private Defendants”) in this adversary proceeding from the commencement or continuation of their active judicial, administrative, or other actions or proceedings, identified in Exhibit B to this Complaint, and the commencement or continuation of other actions alleging substantially similar facts or causes of action as those alleged in the actions identified in Exhibit A or Exhibit B to this Complaint, against former or current (a) owners (including any trusts and their respective trustees and beneficiaries), (b) directors, (c) officers, (d) employees, and (e) associated entities of the Debtors that were or could have been commenced before the commencement of the case (“Related Parties,” and the claims against them described in this paragraph, the “Related Party Claims”), if not otherwise subject to the automatic stay imposed by section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, for a period of 270 days from the issuance of the injunction.

2. Unless stayed, the Pending Actions, identified in Exhibit C to this Complaint, will eviscerate the fundamental goals of these bankruptcy cases—and of the Bankruptcy Code itself. As long as the Pending Actions are actively prosecuted, the value of the estates will continue to be rapidly eroded by the staggering direct and indirect costs of litigation, as Purdue Pharma, the Debtors' main operating entity, spends an average of over $2 million per week in legal and professional costs directly related to defending the Pending Actions, and another $3 million per week in legal and professional fees—the bulk of which are related to the Pending Actions, governmental investigations, and the financial pressure resulting therefrom. And that is just the hard costs. The endless, relentless pressure on the business and its employees is equally material. As long as pursuit of the Pending Actions fosters a race to the courthouse in which plaintiffs attempt ever-more creative ways to jump ahead of one another, claims against the estates will proceed by the luck of the draw instead of fairly and equitably under the principles of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. The Bankruptcy Code provides for stays of litigation to avoid precisely this inequitable and value-destroying dynamic. In the wide range of situations to which it applies, the automatic stay provided by section 362(a) of the Code allows “the bankruptcy court to centralize all disputes concerning property of the debtor’s estate in bankruptcy court so that reorganization can proceed efficiently, unimpeded by uncoordinated proceedings in other arenas.” Shugrue v. Air Line Pilots Ass’n, Int’l (In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc.), 922 F.2d 984, 989 (2d Cir. 1990); see also 11 U.S.C. § 362(a). And section 105(a) of the Code empowers this Court to stay actions that will frustrate a successful reorganization even if those actions are not automatically stayed by section 362—or if the application of section 362 is unclear or disputed.

4. The Debtors therefore respectfully request that the Court issue the requested injunctions. To be clear, the Debtors in no way concede that the Governmental Actions fall within the limited “police power” exception to the automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. § 362(b)(4), or that none of the Related Party Claims are subject to the automatic stay. But, because the vast majority of plaintiffs in the Pending Actions (over 85% by number) are governmental entities, and because the scope of Pending Actions is so vast and the stakes to the Debtors are so high, the Debtors cannot risk a case-by-case or claim-by-claim litigation of the scope of the automatic stay, any exceptions thereto, and any lift-stay motions that may be filed—in hundreds of separate cases. Instead, the Debtors ask that this Court stay the tidal wave of litigation that will drown the Debtors and most certainly frustrate their successful reorganization. Indeed, this is a paradigmatic case for a section 105(a) injunction, even if the automatic stay does not apply.

5. The standard for such an injunction is amply met here. First, the Debtors have a reasonable likelihood of a successful reorganization—if (and likely only if) granted the requested pause of the Pending Actions. The Debtors have already made great strides towards a successful reorganization through the agreement in principle between the Debtors and the Debtors’ ultimate owners (trusts for the benefit of members of the Sackler families (“Sackler Families”)), on the one hand, and 24 state attorneys general, analogous officials from five U.S. territories, and the court-appointed Plaintiffs’ Executive Committee (“PEC”) and Co-Lead Counsel in the federal multidistrict litigation pending in Ohio (“Ohio MDL”), on the other hand, to completely resolve the litigation (“Settlement Structure”). Although there are certainly open points to be further refined and resolved, if the Debtors can successfully translate the Settlement Structure into the core of a confirmed plan, billions of dollars of cash and critical resources from the Debtors would be made available to the American people to address the opioid crisis, and the Debtors’ intellectual property, accumulated expertise, knowledge, and manufacturing capacity would be put to essential public uses.

6. Second, absent a stay of the Pending Actions, the Debtors—and their prospects of successful reorganization—will suffer crushing and irreparable injury. The Debtors’ assets and dwindling cash balance will continue to be consumed by legal fees. The Debtors’ management will be forced to dedicate ever-increasing time and effort to defending the Pending Actions rather than operating the business to maximize the value of the Debtors’ estates. The actions against Related Parties will further consume the Debtors’ resources, distract the Debtors’ management, and threaten the billions of dollars of Related Party contributions that are a keystone of the Settlement Structure. And the Settlement Structure—as well as any concept of equitable distribution among like creditors—will be further undermined at every turn by plaintiffs’ endless intramural jockeying for leverage and races to the courthouse. Every party in interest—whether supporting the Settlement Structure, opposing it, or on the fence—will lose if this value-destroying and inequitable dynamic continues.

7. Third, there is little harm caused by granting the requested relief. While there may be a temporary delay, the Governmental Defendants’ ability to enforce any money judgment is unquestionably stayed by section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code. Furthermore, the Debtors will request that this Court enjoin the Debtors to enforce their commitment to refrain from engaging in key aspects of the conduct implicated in the Governmental Actions (“Voluntary Injunction”). Finally, and perhaps most importantly under these circumstances, it is clearly in the public interest to halt these actions. The Settlement Structure, and the collective process ensuring equality and finality provided by these chapter 11 cases, present a unique opportunity to benefit millions of Americans in need. Without this injunction, that opportunity may be lost and billions of dollars in value—likely for the public itself—destroyed for the benefit of no one.

8. Because the equities weigh in favor of staying the actions, a stay is warranted in the interest of justice, and this Court should grant the requested injunctive relief.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

9. This adversary proceeding arises in and relates to the Debtors' cases pending before this Court under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

10. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this adversary proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, dated January 31, 2012. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the claims against the Related Parties pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334.

11. This is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b) and, pursuant to Rule 7008 of the Bankruptcy Rules, the Debtors consent to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this adversary proceeding to the extent it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

12. Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

THE PARTIES

13. The Debtors are pharmaceutical companies. They manufacture, among other things, FDA-approved, abuse-deterrent, opioid medications, including OxyContin, indicated for the management of pain severe enough to require daily, around-the-clock, long-term opioid treatment and for which alternative treatment options are inadequate. The Debtors are also developing, among other things, two opioid overdose rescue medications and one opioid addiction treatment medication.

14. Purdue Pharma is the main operating entity for the Debtors' business. Purdue Pharma is a limited partnership that is managed and operated by its general partner, Purdue Pharma Inc. ("PPI"), and is governed by PPI's Board of Directors. Purdue Pharma and its subsidiaries are ultimately owned by various trusts for the benefit of members of the Sackler Families.

15. Although not named parties in this adversary proceeding, the Related Parties are former or current (a) directors, (b) officers, (c) employees, (d) associated entities, and/or (e) owners (including any trusts and their respective trustees and beneficiaries) of the Debtors. They include, among others, Purdue Pharma's current CEO, two current directors, and members of the Sackler Families. The Related Parties are listed in Exhibit B of the Complaint and include: The Purdue Frederick Company Inc.; The P.F. Laboratories Inc.; Purdue Pharma Technologies Inc.; PLP Associates Holdings L.P.; PLP Associates Holdings Inc.; BR Holdings Associates L.P.; BR Holdings Associates Inc.; Rosebay Medical Company L.P.; Rosebay Medical Company, Inc.; Beacon Company; PRA Holdings Inc.; Pharmaceutical Research Associates Inc.; Purdue Holdings L.P.; Rhodes Pharmaceuticals Inc.; Rhodes Technologies Inc.; Coventry Technologies L.P.; MNP Consulting Limited; Richard S. Thompson; Joe Coggins; Lyndsie Fowler; Mitchell “Chip” Fisher; Rebecca Sterling; Vanessa Weatherspoon; Chris Hargrove; Brandon Hassenfuss; Joe Read; and Andrew T. Stokes.

16. The Defendants in this adversary proceeding are certain plaintiffs in the Pending Actions. As reflected in Exhibits A and B to the Complaint, the vast majority of defendants are Governmental Defendants. The Defendants also include the Private Defendants who have asserted claims against certain of the Debtors (which are unquestionably subject to the automatic stay) and the Related Parties (which are not). The Defendants are listed in the caption to this complaint and Exhibits A and B of the Complaint.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The Pending Actions and Bankruptcy Petitions

17. The Debtors have been named in more than 2,625 lawsuits filed throughout the state and federal court systems. The lawsuits—i.e., the Pending Actions—generally allege that the Debtors acted improperly in the marketing and sale of opioid medications, and seek monetary damages based on public nuisance, consumer protection laws, unjust enrichment, false claims acts, and similar claims. Although some of the proceedings also seek injunctive relief against the Debtors, requests for such relief are ancillary to the monetary claims in the Governmental Actions—which overwhelmingly allege past misconduct.

18. The vast majority of the Pending Actions—over 85% by number—involve governmental entities as plaintiffs. Approximately 2,200 of the actions have been consolidated in a multidistrict litigation pending in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio. There are also actions pending against the Debtors and Related Parties in state courts around the country, as well as in Puerto Rico. The state court actions include those asserted by the attorneys general of 46 states; these are not part of the MDL.

19. The Debtors and Related Parties also face actions in state and federal courts brought by private parties that assert various claims for personal injury, wrongful death, and economic damages (the “Private Actions”). While these actions have without question been automatically stayed as against the Debtors, certain of the Private Actions also assert claims against the Related Parties, who are not Debtors.

20. Outside of the United States, the Debtors and the Related Parties are also named in 13 actions in Canada (the “Canadian Actions”). The Canadian Actions are brought on behalf of both private individuals and governmental entities and raise claims predicated on similar allegations and causes of action as the Pending Actions in the United States.⁴

21. Substantially all of the Pending Actions name Purdue Pharma as a defendant, and the vast majority also name PPI and the Purdue Frederick Company, Inc. A growing number of the Pending Actions name as defendants other Debtors and/or other Related Parties.

Impact of Pending Actions on the Debtors' Resources

22. Irrespective of the merits, continued litigation of the Pending Actions in disparate fora on the scale faced by the Debtors will only deplete estate assets, misdirect management attention, and severely harm the Debtors' businesses.

23. The costs of litigating thousands of actions across the country are immense. Purdue Pharma, the Debtors' main operating entity, is projected to spend approximately $263 million on legal and related professional costs in 2019—the bulk of which are related to the Pending Actions and the financial pressure resulting therefrom. Indeed, in the first half of 2019, Purdue Pharma spent approximately $63 million for legal representation, expert fees, and other expenses directly related to litigating the Pending Actions, a number that is forecast to approach $121 million by year-end—a rate of over $2 million per week.

24. Legal expenses are, by far, Purdue's largest operating expenses. As the number of lawsuits nearing dispositive motion practice and trial increases in 2020 and beyond, there is no reason to think that litigation expenses directly connected to the Pending Actions will decrease. Indeed, Purdue Pharma's legal expenses year-over-year have increased dramatically since 2015, when the Pending Actions against the Debtors numbered only a handful. As of September 14, 2019, the Debtors were scheduled to take or defend 60 depositions, file as many as 22 dispositive motions, and participate in five hearings on dispositive motions in five different courts across the country through October 31, 2019.

25. In addition to financial costs, the Pending Actions have been disruptive to the Debtors' day-to-day conduct of business. The time and energy required to monitor, manage, and direct the Debtors' response to the Pending Actions is enormous. Many senior employees have been forced to devote significant time and efforts to litigation-related matters, and considerable resources have been expended tending to an extremely large volume of discovery demands. There have been many depositions of the Debtors' present or former directors, officers, or employees in the Pending Actions, which have in turn required current management and employees to sit through many more hours of preparation time. Additionally, the Debtors have been responding to interrogatories, requests for the production of documents, and requests for admission in actions all throughout the country, as well as extensive document discovery. Indeed, the Debtors have produced millions of documents in connection with the Pending Actions, including millions of documents in the MDL alone, with much more discovery yet to come.

26. The Pending Actions have also caused or exacerbated various operational challenges and exacted significant human capital costs. The Pending Actions have created and/or contributed to an environment of uncertainty and doubt that has both frustrated the Debtors' efforts to retain talent and made recruiting new talent difficult. The Debtors have already suffered several key resignations, complicating the Debtors ability to operate the business. Further, negative public sentiment surrounding the Pending Actions has complicated the Debtors' business operations; for example, several financial intuitions have refused to work with Purdue, requiring management to spend precious time securing replacement vendors.

27. Further, sales of opioid medications, which accounted for approximately 92% of Purdue Pharma's revenue in 2018, have decreased significantly. In 2010, Purdue Pharma generated $2.2 billion of revenue from opioid-related products. By 2018, that figure had dropped precipitously to $975 million and it is forecasted to be just $644 million for 2019. This decline in revenue will only impede the Debtors' ability to preserve estate value in the face of massive legal costs associated with the Pending Actions. This is particularly acute in view of the fact that products in Purdue Pharma's new product pipeline (assuming they receive FDA approval) are not expected to generate revenue before 2022.

The Settlement Structure

28. The Debtors spent the better part of the last year attempting to negotiate a global resolution of the Pending Actions. These efforts culminated in an agreement in principal with critical and important constituents on a structure to resolve the Pending Actions that can be effectuated only through these chapter 11 proceedings.

29. This Settlement Structure would maximize the value of the Debtors' estates and result in an unprecedented transfer of value to the American people. Under the agreed-upon Settlement Structure, as part of a resolution of the litigation: (1) Purdue's existing shareholders will relinquish all of their equity interests in the Debtors and consent to the transfer of all of the Debtors' assets to a trust or similar post-emergence structure for the benefit of claimants and the U.S. public, "free and clear" of Purdue's liabilities to the fullest extent permitted by law; (2) Purdue's existing shareholders will engage in a sale process for their ex-U.S. pharmaceutical companies; and (3) Purdue's existing shareholders will contribute an additional $3 billion over seven years (in addition to 100% of the value of all 24 Debtors), with the hope of substantial further contemplated contributions from the sales of their ex-U.S. pharmaceutical businesses.

30. This Settlement Structure has the strong support of key constituencies that represent a sizable portion of this country's citizens. These include no fewer than 24 state attorneys general and analogous officials from five U.S. territories. In addition, the Settlement Structure has the backing of the Plaintiffs' Executive Committee (PEC) and Co-Lead Counsel in the Ohio MDL. The PEC is the court-appointed claimants' leadership team in the Ohio MDL that is charged with coordinating and organizing the various plaintiffs and litigation tracks.⁵ It comprises attorneys at law firms that collectively represent over 1,000 counties, municipalities (including cities, towns, and villages), Native American tribes, individuals, and third-party payors. Among these plaintiffs are some of the nation's most populous cities and counties that, together with the supporting states and territories, comprise well over half of the country's population.

The Bankruptcy Proceeding

31. The Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in this Court on September 15, 2019 (the "Petition Date").

32. The Debtors continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors-in-possession under sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors also filed a motion requesting joint administration of these chapter 11 cases under Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b), which was granted on September 17, 2019.

33. Through the Settlement Structure, and with the support of the aforementioned key constituencies, the Debtors seek to construct a confirmable plan of reorganization that conserves the assets of the Debtors' estates so that billions of dollars in value and vital opioid overdose

CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

COUNT ONE

(Preliminary Injunction Staying the Governmental Actions against the Debtors)

34. The Debtors repeat and re-allege the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

35. The Debtors seek a preliminary injunction to stay the Governmental Actions against the Debtors under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code for a period of 270 days from the issuance of the injunction.

36. Section 105(a) authorizes the Court to “issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of [the Bankruptcy Code].” 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). It is well settled that the Court, under section 105(a), may enjoin suits that might impede the reorganization process.

37. Accordingly, although the Debtors in no way concede and do not believe that the police power exception to the automatic stay applies, section 105(a) permits the issuance of injunctions to stay governmental actions that fall within that exception, just as it authorizes the Court to enjoin suits against non-debtors that are not subject to the automatic stay.

38. In assessing whether such a preliminary injunction under section 105(a) is appropriate, courts look to the traditional requirements for a preliminary injunction under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65, modified to fit the bankruptcy context: (1) whether there is a reasonable likelihood of successful reorganization; (2) whether there is imminent irreparable harm to the estate and the bankruptcy process in the absence of an injunction; (3) whether the balance of harms tips in favor of the moving party; and (4) whether the public interest weighs in favor of an injunction.

39. There is a reasonable likelihood that the Debtors will successfully accomplish the goal of these chapter 11 cases: to halt the drain on the Debtors' estates; centralize all of the claims against the Debtors; determine whether and to what extent they are liable, if required; and construct a confirmable plan of reorganization to implement the Settlement Structure. By providing a collective process that ensures equal treatment of similarly situated claimants, and the finality that is an essential part of any comprehensive settlement, bankruptcy will help structure negotiations and enable a comprehensive and equitable resolution. The proposal of the Debtors' ultimate owners to, among other things, relinquish all of their equity interests in the Debtors and consent to the transfer of all of the Debtors' assets to a trust or similar post-emergence structure for the benefit of claimants and the U.S. public has laid the foundation for the success of these proceedings.

40. Still, if some claimants insist on pursuing their own claims to the detriment of all, decades of experience demonstrate that bankruptcy is a proven and efficient vehicle to successfully, rationally, and equitably resolve such mass tort liability. The present request for an injunction is the first step in rationalizing the claims against the Debtors. Further, bankruptcy will allow for the efficient resolution of claims via: (1) the ability to implement coordinated and cost-effective discovery protocols; (2) the use of omnibus objections and consolidated hearings or trials to allow or disallow claims involving common questions of law or fact, of which there are many (including, among others, standing, causation, and preemption); and (3) the ability to craft flexible and efficient mechanisms for valuating claims through claims estimation. Unlike the current status quo, bankruptcy provides the necessary mechanisms to allow the claims against the Debtors to be resolved in an efficient and uniform manner that avoids duplication, waste, and the inequities of disparate outcomes.

41. Absent an order enjoining the Governmental Defendants from continued prosecution of their claims as against the Debtors, the Debtors' estates and the Debtors' reorganization efforts will suffer imminent irreparable harm. If the Pending Actions continue as they had before the Debtors' bankruptcy filings, the Settlement Structure will be irretrievably undermined as the Debtors' estates continue to be consumed by legal fees and the plaintiffs' endless races to courthouses around the country continues. As long as some parties remain able to pursue litigation in disparate fora—rather than before this Court—even those plaintiff constituencies that support the Settlement Structure face a paradigmatic “prisoner’s dilemma.” They will face the choice of litigating in courts across the country to avoid being left behind as others pursue litigation, even though that strategy depletes the value of the estates.

42. The costs associated with the Pending Actions are enormous, and estate value is irretrievably lost by the day. Unless the Governmental Actions are stayed, many millions of critical dollars will continue to be squandered on legal costs and associated expenses rather than being preserved for the greater benefit and being put to productive and potentially life-saving use by furthering the development and distribution of opioid overdose treatments.

43. In addition, if the Governmental Actions were to continue, it is almost certain that the Debtors' leadership and employees would be forced to attend hearings and trials, prepare for and participate in depositions, and assist in responding to a wide array of time-consuming written discovery devices—thereby diverting their attention from business matters, maximizing estate value, and from achieving a global resolution of the Pending Actions in these chapter 11 proceedings, for the benefit of all estate stakeholders.

44. The balance of harms weighs decidedly in favor of enjoining the Governmental Actions against the Debtors. The Governmental Actions threaten irreparable harm to the reorganization effort and estates, while the Governmental Defendants would receive no real benefit in proceeding to judgment in piecemeal litigation. The continued prosecution of the Governmental Actions would only wastefully deplete the Debtors' assets and frustrate a global resolution. Indeed, even if these actions were litigated to conclusion, the Governmental Defendants would be permitted only to reduce their money claims to judgment, as they cannot enforce any monetary judgments against the Debtors. Thus, the expenditure of hundreds of millions of dollars in attorneys' fees and the uncertainty and distraction of trials would win nothing more than proofs of claim to be filed and addressed in this Court. Moreover, to the extent the actions implicate non-monetary concerns, those will be addressed by the Voluntary Injunction. In addition, even were the Governmental Defendants theoretically prejudiced by a stay, the time-limited duration of the stay requested here in the first instance—270 days—would significantly ameliorate that prejudice.

45. The public interest weighs heavily in favor of granting the requested stay. The requested stay would advance the prospects of a global, orderly, equitable (and hopefully) negotiated resolution of the Debtors' potential liability while stemming the enormous drain on party and judicial resources caused by a disjointed prosecution of the Pending Actions. Moreover, the Settlement Structure would ensure that billions of dollars in value, along with every dollar spent litigating these claims during the pendency of these bankruptcy proceedings, is a dollar that will be preserved for the American public or other potential estate stakeholders, including the plaintiffs in the Pending Actions.

46. The public interest is also served through the centralized resolution of claims against the Debtors.

47. An injunction staying the Governmental Actions against the Debtors is therefore appropriate.

48. No prior application for the relief requested herein has been made to this Court or any other court.

COUNT TWO
(Preliminary Injunction Staying Actions Against Related Parties)

49. The Debtors repeat and re-allege the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

50. The Debtors seek a preliminary injunction to stay the Related Party Claims under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code for a period of 270 days from the issuance of the injunction.

51. This Court has the jurisdiction and authority to enjoin the Related Party Claims pursuant to section 105(a) because the actions will have a direct and substantial impact on the Debtors' estates. The Related Party Claims are based on conduct substantially identical to, and inextricably intertwined with, that alleged to have been engaged in by the Debtors and could give rise to potential future indemnification claims against the Debtors or otherwise diminish shared insurance coverage.

52. As explained above, it is likely that there will be a successful reorganization. A stay of the Related Party Claims is essential to this success. There would be no Settlement Structure without the existing shareholders' willingness to agree in principle, and as part of a global resolution, to voluntarily relinquish all of their equity interests in the Debtors, to consent to the transfer of all of the Debtors' assets to a trust or similar post-emergence structure for the benefit of claimants and the U.S. public, “free and clear” of the Debtors’ liabilities to the fullest extent permitted by law, and to contribute $3 billion over seven years in additional funds, with the hope of substantial further contemplated contributions from the sales of their ex-U.S. pharmaceutical businesses. This foundation for success should not be undermined by allowing the Related Party Claims to deplete estate assets and to threaten the Settlement Structure.

53. Absent a stay of the claims against the Related Parties, there would be irreparable harm to the Debtors’ prospects for reorganization and the estates. The Related Party Claims are based on conduct substantially identical to, and inextricably intertwined with, that alleged to have been engaged in by the Debtors. Indeed, many of the Related Party Claims do not distinguish between the actions of the Debtors or Related Parties, but instead assert that both sets of defendants are jointly liable for the same alleged conduct, under the same theories. Because the claims against the Related Parties are inextricably linked to those very same claims made against the Debtors, absent a stay, the Debtors will be forced to bear the monetary and non-monetary costs of participation in those actions—even if those cases are stayed with respect to the Debtors. Current directors, officers, and employees of the Debtors will almost certainly be required to spend time overseeing and assisting in protecting the Debtors’ interests and responding to discovery requests, all of which diminishes the Debtors’ resources and diverts critical management focus and attention from the all-important task of achieving consensual resolution of these chapter 11 proceedings. Moreover, because the Related Party Claims are inextricably intertwined with claims against the Debtors, there is a material risk that there would be findings of law or fact with respect to the Related Party Claims that would, at a minimum, create an adverse record against the Debtors, and may embolden plaintiffs to argue that the findings against the Related Parties should have a collateral estoppel effect.

54. Commencement or continued prosecution of the Related Party Claims against the Debtors' existing shareholders and their affiliates risks toppling the Settlement Structure and depriving the Debtors' estates of billions of dollars of value. If forced to bear the risk of adverse money judgments, the Related Parties may be unwilling—or unable—to make the billions of dollars of contributions contemplated by the Settlement Structure. If any judgment on a Related Party Claim were enforced, value that would otherwise be distributed fairly and equitably in these proceedings would be stripped for the benefit of the plaintiff that won the race to judgment. This, in turn, would only diminish the value of potential estate claims that vested in the Debtors as of the petitions—such as fraudulent conveyance, alter ego, and veil piercing claims—and be antithetical to the goals of these chapter 11 proceedings.

55. The balance of the hardships favors a stay, given that the irreparable harm to the Debtors outweighs any potential harm. That the Defendants may have to wait to prosecute their cases does not outweigh the potential harm to the Debtors. Indeed, staying the claims against Related Parties would preserve the estates' assets and facilitate an equitable resolution of claims in the bankruptcy, which is to the benefit of all stakeholders.

56. Finally, staying the claims against Related Parties would be in the public interest, given the strong interest in allowing the Debtors to reorganize and resolve their liabilities through a centralized and rational resolution of claims in bankruptcy as well as the public interest in achieving such a reorganization through the consensual resolution proposed in the Settlement Structure.

57. An injunction staying the Related Party Claims for a period of 270 days from the issuance of the injunction is therefore appropriate.

58. No prior application for the relief requested herein has been made to this Court or any other court.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court enter judgment in their favor and request relief as follows:

- (a) enjoin the Governmental Defendants from the commencement or continuation of the Governmental Actions, which are identified in Exhibit A to this Complaint, as well as the commencement or continuation of any other actions against the Debtors alleging substantially similar facts or causes of action as those alleged in the Governmental Actions, if not otherwise subject to the automatic stay imposed by section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, for a period of 270 days from the issuance of the injunction;
- (b) enjoin the Governmental Defendants and Private Defendants in this adversary proceeding from commencement or continuation of the Related Party Claims, if not otherwise subject to the automatic stay imposed by section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, for a period of 270 days from the issuance of the injunction;
- (c) entry of the Voluntary Injunction; and
- (d) all such other relief as the Court finds just and equitable.
