“Track 8”)	ORDER REGARDING BRIEFING
)

In the bellwether case of Cobb County v. Purdue Pharma L.P., case no. 18-OP-45817, the Court’s most recent Case Management Order (“CMO”) set the following deadlines: (1) August 9, 2024 for dispositive and Daubert motions; (2) October 10, 2022 for responses to those motions; and (3) November 12, 2022 for replies to those motions. See Cobb County docket no. 26 at 8. Those dates, however, were premised upon two expectations: first, that the parties would simultaneously file numerous dispositive and Daubert motions at the initial deadline; and second, that the parties would not file any such motion before that initial deadline.

On April 26, 2024, however, plaintiff Cobb County served on defendant Publix a motion for partial summary judgment. See Cobb County docket no. 75. The Court concludes it is appropriate to require submission of response and reply briefs to this motion well before the above-cited dates. Accordingly, the Court hereby sets the following deadlines. Publix will file a response brief to Cobb County’s motion for partial summary judgment on or before July 2, 2024, and plaintiff will file a reply brief on or before July 23, 2024.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
